

PUBLIC COMMENT PROCESS FOR THE
SARAH BARTMANN – NATIONAL HERITAGE BURIAL SITE - CONSERVATION
MANAGEMENT PLAN
[2 March – 16 March 2009]

Dear Stakeholder

The Department of Arts and Culture has embarked on a planning and implementation process for the effective management of the SARAH BARTMANN, National Heritage Burial Site.

You are invited to comment on the final draft Conservation Management Plan for the declared National Heritage Burial Site of Sarah Bartmann.

In summary, the Conservation Management Plan addresses matters related to the appropriate development and management of the Heritage site [e.g. Access to the gravesite, Visitor numbers, Interpretation, Environmental management, Appropriate development at the actual gravesite, Appropriate development of the entire declared site which include the hill ('koppie'), sundial and grass lawn, etc].

NOTE: Please send any comment/s directly to: Mr Ashwell Adriaan at ashed@telkomsa.net before 8am, Monday, 16 March 2009.

To ensure that your comments are received, please send a copy of your email to eleanor@sa.wild.org as well.

Your comments are of critical importance as your view and input will be a vital component in the development of a final and practical management plan that will add great value to the Sarah Bartmann National Heritage Burial Site in the Kouga region.

Kind regards

Eleanor McGregor
Sarah Bartmann Project: Coordinator
Wilderness Foundation (Contracted by the Department of Arts and Culture)
Cell 084 6888 325